NEAR-NEWS AND CHATTER FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

To the lady first correctly guessing the identity of the person of whom the following is a character sketch, and bringing a copy of this paper to The Tribune office, a cash prize of $1.00 will be given. The subject of the sketch is a prominent citizen of La Crosse. After winning one prize, a contestant will not be eligible to again compete for a period of three months.

Mrs. M. Getts, 1618 Badger street, was the winner of last week's "Guess Who's Here" puzzle, of which Mr. A. Hirshheimer was the subject.

GUESS WHO'S HERE

What hotel, Bill? Almost any hotel in the city, at one time or another. Just now it's one that might have moulded the gilt letters over its door in memory of a fashion of democracy long decently interred but occasionally dug up to sound a tocsin or turn a phrase in a cause its connection with which is the merest flippancy. When, after twenty odd years as clerk, landlord and alderman a man finds himself out of jail and bearing no marks of punishment more serious than a few shingles off the roof and an ambitious circumference, he may be pardoned for a conscious wisdom through the monocle of which he reads attached to life's little tragedies that (to the sage) comforting reflection, "What fools these mortals be!" Handing him a gold brick would be as interesting as staging a candy-pull in hades, and any time you short change him and get away with it you'll find the bill you changed was a counterfeit. He wasn't born with a silver spoon in his mouth; indeed, the fact that fingers were made before forks was probably an important item in the economies of his early life. Accustomed to the theories of his early environment he learned to keep an eye on the other fellow, not to let his left hand know what his right hand was doing and never to raise a one card draw. If the prosperity of his latter years has inclined him to gum shoe politics and gout, it may be said that one is the reward and the other the penalty of self-made substantiability which demands tribute to one's self esteem and concessions to one's appetite. All around, he's about as interesting a citizen to "meet up with" as the community affords, and remember, all the time, world without end, he's "hep."

The White Man's Dope

News item—"Jim" Corbett is billed for a pugilistic monologue at the Majestic.

He entered the arena
'Mid the plaudits of the crowd.
"Jim Corbett!" Koppelberger said,
And the cheers were long and loud.

"Jim agrees to knock our four Ex-champions tonight,"
Said Kop, "and Dengler promises
That he won't stop the fight.

"His trainer, Noah Webster,
Says Jim is in the pink
Of unabridged condition,
And the dope is right, I think."

Jim stepped with wary caution
To the center of the ring,
And swift a wicked simile
To John L.'s jaw did swing.

With hot hyperbole he sent
Fitzsimmons to the mat,
And chopped Tom Sharkey's face with slang
When the sailor came to bat.

He uppercut Jim Jeffries
With a smashing metaphor,
And followed with an epigram
That sent him to the floor.

Responding to an encore
In his eloquentest way,
Jim swung a monologue that sent
Jack Johnson to the hay.

Bewildered by his adjectives
Throughout the grilling bout,
They couldn't stop his rhetoric,
And all were counted out.

In fact, with fast delivery
And a fusillade of sounds,
Jim Corbett "came back" gamely
And talked five snappy rounds.

"Pf" Always For Anderson

"Pf" for Oscar Anderson, all the time, conformity with this doctrine being maintained by the mere substitution of "Pflaum" for "Pfaelzer." Or to be more explicit, Oscar has changed firms, leaving David M. Pfaelzer & Co., of which he was vice-president, and by which he was dubbed a knight of the grip seventeen years ago, and taken commission with Weil, Pflaum & Co., the occasion being the dissolution of said David M. Pfaelzer & Co., to permit Mr. Pfaelzer to enjoy the pleasures of retirement after a busy business career in which he amassed a comfortable fortune.

Mr. Anderson just closed his last trip for the Pfaelzer concern, which will deliver all goods ordered up to this time as the last act of its business career.

"Yes, David Pfaelzer & Co. have dissolved," said Mr. Anderson today, "but I've written the boys out west that I'll be there with the glad rags for Weil, Pflaum & Co., and their stuff looks good to me."

So the dean of our corps of commercial travelers will still go forth with the loaded grip and the merry quip with La Crosse as his headquarters, bearing, as heretofore, the guarantee of "Pf" that the goods are all wool and a yard wide.

A Warning to Wallingford

Stung by the norned enterprise of the genius to emulate whom G. Wallingford White aspires, a resentful land man of Bowman, N. D., sends to Our Hero through The Tribune a broad suggestion that should he attempt to exploit the Big Thing in that locality his anti-mortem statement will precede a necktie party in which he will figure in the dual roll of guest of honor and the corpus delecti. The letter follows:

"———— ————

"Farm and Ranch Lands.
"Bowman, N. D. Jan. 18, 1912
"Editor.
"La Crosse Tribune,
"La Crosse, Wis.

"Dear Sir:—Referring to the "Big Thing" originated by G. Wallingford White. I do not want to see G. W. get into any trouble, so I hasten to advise him that the idea is already patented and in operation. The big stunt was pulled off along the line of the Milwaukee and P. S. Ry., last July. J. B. Alexander of Houston, Texas, owns the town and its name is Virgie, Montgomery Co., Texas. A Mr. Hamisch came along with an auto working the towns, advertising a large tract of land owned by Mr. Alexander, not offering any for sale, but in order to get the people on the ground where they could see the land, they would run an excursion in Oct. 1911 free except a nominal charge of 25 cents for meals. But, in order to get this free ride each prospective passenger had to buy a lot in Virgie for the small sum of $5.00. If you wanted to record your deed, it was up to you to pay the recorder $1.00. In order not to load the train with too many people from one town, the number was restricted. Bowman was held to 15, smaller towns in proportion, and the fortunate ones were selected by lot. Mr. Hamisch was an industrious worker, covering about three towns daily, but the excursion never materialized and I fear I'll never see my lot No. 29, Block No. 6,100. I think Mr. Hamisch will do well if the Alphabet holds out.

'VICTIM.

"P. S.—
"Mr. Editor. Don't give me away but you'd better caution G. W. to avoid this neck of the woods.
(Signed) "———— ————"

N. B.—By request, as per postscript, the identity of the author of this "word to the wise" is not divulged.

PINAFORE REACHES SUCCESS HARBOR

Jolly and Musical Crew Frolic on Decks of Her Majesty's Ship Amid Applause

DUET SCORES EVENING'S HIT

Pair Is Recalled Four Times; Myron Locke Is Real Comedian; the Chorus Is Good

A stellar group of five amateurs, supported by an excellent chorus, sang "Pinafore" to an enthusiastic audience at La Crosse theater last evening.

The leading roles were interpreted by James R. Kerr, Emil Neimeyer, Ruth Heath, Viola Doerflinger, Margretha Marston and Myron S. Locke.

While Mr. Kerr will never achieve fame as a comedian, his splendid voice was at its best, and he sang the part of "The Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., First Lord of the Admiralty" with the proper power and tone.

Emil Neimeyer, whose talent has so frequently contributed to the success of local performances, as Captain Corcoran, made a splendid impression, his impersonation equalling his singing, and the duet in which Miss Doerflinger joined him, "Things are Seldom What They Seem," proved the hit of the evening, as evidenced by four tumultous encores.

Girls Make Hits

As the saucy and pert "Little Buttercup," Miss Doerflinger rose fully to the demands of her pleasing role. Her pleasing voice, well adapted to the part, charmed the audience, while the abandon with which she entered into the spirit of her work lent the effort a naturalness raising it above the usual standard of amateur endeavor.

Miss Heath, as "Hebe," delighted the audience by the unusual sweetness of a voice while, while lacking the volume usually employed in the heavier opera, was admirably fitted for the lighter opera, and the audience attested its enjoyment of her singing by liberal applause.

Encores were the order of the evening, practically every song being received with tumultous enthusiasm, which never subsided until the air had been repeated at least once. The old Gilbert and Sullivan opera repeated at last night's performance the hit which it has always scored in the past.

Locke Is Funny

The work of Myron Locke as Dick Deadeye, also is worthy of mention, his characterization of that difficult part being the extreme of humor.

The rest of the cast was uniformly good, all the principals being up to their work, many of them showing proficiency that would do credit to a professional performance.

The chorus presented a most attractive appearance, the natty gowns of the girls and the navy blue and duck of the boys lending a gala day appearance to a scene the beauty of which supplemented the effect of the nicely trained and rich toned voices.

Flock Of Robins Astonishes Farmers

Yesterday was "groundhog day" and also "robin day," according to a story told by Louis Swennes and John Hanson, farmers living near West Salem, when they came to La Crosse today. A flock of about 100 robins flying along the road in search of food was the unusual sight that greeted the astonished gaze of the two men when on their way to town. The sight was so unusual that they stopped to investigate. The robins continued their flight along the road until their wings became stiff with the cold, when they turned and took shelter in a big cave on the banks of the La Crosse river. Messrs. Swennes and Hanson discovered evidence that the robins had spent the entire winter in the cave.

STEPHENSON WAS ELECTED LEGALLY

This Is Claim Made to the Senate Committee by Counsel Littlefield; Denies Corruption

ASKS SENATE FOR PRECEDENT

Urges that Upper House Take Stand It Has No Right to Probe Primary Election

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Senator Isaac Stephenson's counsel, former Representative Littlefield of Maine, argued before the senate committee on privileges and elections today that his client's election was legal and free from corruption. The committee now has before it the unanimous report of a sub-committee which exonerated the senator.

Littlefield contended that Stephenson was really elected on January 26, 1909, when he received 12 of 17 votes cast in the state senate, the other 16 senators simply voting "present." He declared that as a fundamental proposition the senate had no power to investigate a primary election. The constitution, he said, provides that legislatures shall elect senators.

"A very rich man might buy the election of legislatures," said Governor Kern.

"Yes, but he would be disqualified," said Littlefield. "Money was placed only in the hands of Stephenson's friends," said Littlefield. "All swore that none of this money was used to corruptly influence votes in his favor."

Admits Law Violation

Littlefield contended that no proof of illegality has been produced, and while admitting that the Wisconsin law had not been complied with in Stephenson's report of his $107,000 campaign expenses, asked that the senate refrain from imposing any penalty in view of that prescribed by the Wisconsin law. Littlefield asked that the committee establish a precedent in the pending case by deciding that the senate ought not to investigate primaries.

It was necessary in Stephenson's campaign, Littlefield said, to make a canvass of 2,200 precincts in the state, and this required money to accomplish this work, particularly in Stephenson's case because he was known to be a rich man.

The committee postponed further consideration until next Saturday.

TOASTMASTER GETS PEEVED

Don C. Streitz Denounces La Follette's Words as False; Dinner Ends in Quarrel

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 3.—The allegation that many of the country's newspapers are "controlled through that community of interests, that interdependence of investments, which ties the publishers up to the banks, the advertisers and the special interests," made by Senator La Follette early today, just before the dinner of the Periodical Publishers' association of America ended at a local hotel, stirred members and officers to bitter denial, but he not only stood by his charges but insisted that the magazines are also in danger of such control.

Will Include Magazines

"We may expect this kind of control sooner or later," he continued, "to reach out to the magazines. But more than this, I warn you of a subtle new peril, the centralization of advertising that will in time gag you. What has occurred on the small scale in almost every city in the country will extend to the national scale and will ere long close in on the magazines.

"Is it not the 'kept sheet' owned by a man of great wealth to further his own interests that is the grave danger in this country. There are a few papers of this kind but not many. It is the other control we have to face.

Toastmaster Bitter

During the latter part of his speech, which lasted more than two hours, there was an organized interruption from many of the diners. When he had finished, Don C. Seitz, who was acting as toastmaster, said: "I shall not attempt nor have I the time to come to the defense of the newspapers of this country which have just been foolish, wickedly and untruthfully assailed."

Prisoners Are Lost In the County Jail

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—A searching investigation of the records of the county jail will be set in motion here today for the discovery that a number of prisoners have been "lost" in the county jail and might have served life sentences had accident not revealed their sorry plight.

Hony Provost, an Italian who was serving out a fine of $200, was released yesterday by Judge Frye with the apologies of the court. He finished his time September 25 last but Tony thought he would have to stay in jail until he got $200 to pay the fine. He had prepared for a life term. A collection was taken up in the court room for the Italian and when it was handed him he declared he was sorry he could not pay his fine.

Judge Frye started an informal investigation and was astonished to find that three other men were confined whose terms had expired long ago. All will probably be set free today. Jailors are today questioning all prisoners as to their terms in an effort to check up the records

UNITED STATES WARNS MEXICO

Preparations for Mobilizing Troops on Border Taken as Hint to Mexico to Be Careful

JUAREZ SEAT OF REBEL RULE

Provisional Government of Gomez Established; City of Chihuahua Is Besieged

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Without the formality of a diplomatic note, such as that served on Cuba two weeks ago, Uncle Sam today showed his mailed fist to Mexico by orders issued at the war department giving warning that a nother "maneuver camp" might be established along the boundary line.

The decision was taken following further disquieting messages today from Governor Colquitt of Texas and Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City. The administration hopes that the mere threat of such a step will be sufficient, but if the warning does not have that effect, the war department will back it up with several thousand troops, now being prepared for a hurried mobilization along the border.

The two regiments of troops now at San Antonio were today provided with marching rations and field equipment. Three thousand men in posts nearest the line were ordered to make ready for a possible quick trip to El Paso.

Juarez Government Seat

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 3.—Although three "peace envoys" representing the Juarez mutineers are enroute south to meet General Pascual Orozoco and to treat with the Mexican federals, it was announced early today that that city has been selected as the headquarters of the provisional government headed by Emilio Vasquez Gomez. The revolutionary junta at Juarez, after making this announcement, sent word to Gomez, at San Antonio, Texas, to hasten to Juarez and take charge. The junta also decided to send a representative to Washington to confer with President Taft regarding the status of the new revolutionary government.

Chihuahua Besieged

Advices today from Chihuahua indicate an alarming condition of affairs. Following the mutiny of yesterday Gonzales was forced to release Antonio Rojas, a political prisoner. Rojas is reported to be preparing to attack the city unles Gonzales releases all other political prisoners. Gonzales at last reports had refused to release the men and was preparing to defend the city.

TRAGEDY RESULT OF PLAGUE FEAR

Son, Insane from Brooding Over Fate of Tuberculosis Ridden Family, Commits Crime

SLAYS THREE AND SELF

Father, Sister and Baby Brother Found Dead by Body of Suicide

APPLETON, Wis., Feb. 3.—An insane effort to hasten the work of dread tuberculosis is today held indirectly responsible for a triple murder and suicide in the family of Mr. Louis Maihland, 68, a farmer, near Binghamton, fifteen miles west of here, late yesterday.

Five of the family of twelve including the mother, have succumbed to hereditary plague within the past four years. Today William Maihland, 21, a son, is a suicide after blowing off the head of his father with a charge of shot and cutting the throats of John, 8, and Dorah, aged 16. The latter was in the last stages of the disease. Four brothers who survive are each afflicted with the plague. According to them today, William, who returned to the family farm yesterday after an estrangement four months ago with the father, suggested during the family that that poison be procured and all take it in an effort to escape the slow inevitable death. They believed him demented, but late yesterday when George, 13, returned from school the work of his insane mind had been completed with the discovery of the four bodies.

Knife and Gun Used

The victims were found where they died at different places near the farmhouse.

The elder Maihland's body was in the barn. His head was practically torn from his body by a heavy charge of shot. Near a smokehouse lay the body of John, throat cut from ear to ear. In the kitchen, her throat also cut, lay Dorah, while the alleged murderer's body, with a gaping wound in the throat lay near that of John, in the smokehouse. Near him lay the fateful butcher knife with which he accomplished two of his crimes and suicide.

QUADRUPLE MURDER

LAWRENCE, Mass., Feb. 3.—Working on the theory that robbery and not revenge was the motive for last night's quadruple murder in the tenement section, the police rounded upa number of persons on suspicion.

The police learned today that Maroon had drawn $500 from the bank yesterday and had the money with him when he went to the Savia home. A search failed to reveal the money.

The great singer says there is no bet too large for him to make on his fellow countryman.

LONGBOAT WINS RACE

EDINBURGH, Feb. 3.—Tom Longboat of Canada, defeated Hans Holmer of America and W. Koehlmaine of Finland, in a fifteen-mile match race here this afternoon. The Scandinavian finished half a yard behind. Holmer tired in the stretch. Longboat's time was one hour, twenty minutes and 4 3-5 seconds.

A YEAR OF GOOD WORK RECORDED

The report of Miss Tirza Dinsdale, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., shows that this organization has closed a year of progress knowledge of which must indeed be gratifying to those who have given to the institution their moral and financial support. The increase in the membership is so substantial as to warrant the expectation that still greater growth in the future will accompany proportionately substantial good to be derived from the organization.

Citizens who, in addition to lending their good will and approval, have opened their purses for the Y. W. C. A., deserve the thanks of the community, and as the public views the progress that has been made it will no doubt experience a sense of appreciation. That more financial help may be needed is a possibility which should not be bad news, for where so little money has produced results so good people in the habit of supporting beneficent societies will not be inclined to shirk the responsibility.

Indeed, the extension work of the past year in various factories of the city has been, we believe, alone sufficient to justify the expenditure, and we are glad to recite that with commendable public spirit a number of manufacturers have extended the hand of welcome and liberally cooperated in the work.

One feature of the Y. W. C. A. deserves especial mention. We refer to the gymnasium, to which, since last October, a competent physical director has for the first time brought the advantage of scientific training. Physical exercise must go hand in hand with intellectual and moral training if the best results are achieved. It is a recognized principle that the degree of mental and spiritual perfection to be attained is directly related to the physical condition of the subject, and it is for this reason that the older institution, the Y. M. C. A., recognizes in its gymnasium one of its most powerful agencies for the development of young men. Certainly, it is no less important in the training of young women.

The best basis upon which to estimate the efficiency of officials is the opinions of those who come most in contact with them, and the loyal endorsement of Miss Dinsdale, general secretary, Miss Clement, physical director, and Miss Ballard, house secretary, accorded them by the young women of the association, is of itself a sufficient testimonial to their value in this community, and justifies our congratulation of the officials and directorate upon their good fortune in the selection of the active heads of the society. The Tribune wishes them and the organization they are so ably building a still greater measure of success and prosperity in 1912.

WHY NOT A RESERVOIR

We believe it is natural that men who have been opposed to that system of water works ordered for La Crosse by the state railroad commission should be hypercritical in their attitude toward it and supersensitive to whatever faults, great or small, they may discover in it. That delay caused by this attitude is unfortunate, and should not be tolerated, goes without saying.

However, on the other hand, we should not condemn in any public official that caution and close scrutiny, which conservative business men habitually give to private enterprises of moment equal to that of the building of an expensive system of water works, and we should be careful how we criticise the critics.

We are inclined to agree with those who feel that there is no time like the present for providing a suitable reservoir as a part of the new system. That it will be conducive of economy is a scientific fact that will not be disputed; that a reservoir will be valuable in the additional fire protection which it will give is equally certain. Not only will it render the department more efficacious in handling fires, owing to the increased pressure which it will afford, but it will be insurance against such a catastrophe as might result were the engines to go out of commission during a dangerous fire.

As measured by the benefits that will accrue, the cost of the reservoir should hardly be an argument in the premises. It will prove a splendid investment. And why cut off the dog's tail a little at a time? We must have the reservoir sooner or later, and it will be better to take the whole dose of bonds now than to have the unfinished job as a bone of contention to bring us worry at a later date.

MAKE THE DEBATE A PUBLIC RECORD

There has been considerable discussion of the propriety of the city council having gone into executive session to discuss what may have been serious charges affecting the methods being employed for the installation of the well system to supply water for the city of La Crosse.

It is understood that the men who were responsible for the criticism which was broached in an open meeting and continued in the executive session have been opposed to the well system, and it may be assumed that their criticism is of a carping nature. However, it is unfair to accept this as a fact without positive evidence, and in justice to them the presumption should be that they are honestly seeking to have the work done in the best possible manner.

The Tribune has not attempted to judge the relative merits of the two systems of water supply, its only contention having been that both sides should have a full hearing. It felt at the outset that the men who favored the river system were, perhaps unconsciously, inclined to foreclose the case against the advocates of the well system without sufficient investigation.

The spending of a half million dollars for a water system is no trivial concern to the tax payers of La Crosse, and we believe they are entitled to the fullest publicity relating to every phase of the proceedings. The citizens have a right to hear criticisms and suggestions of whatever character, even though offered by men who have not been friendly to the well plan, and we submit it is the duty of those who have criticisms to offer to again bring the matter before the council at an open meeting.

THE CARPET FROM BAGDAD

A New Novel By Harold McGrath

Copyright 1911—The Bobbs-Merrill Co.

"You haven't killed any one?" whispered George.

"I don't know; perhaps. Christianity against paganism; the Occidental conscience permits it." Ryanne made a gesture to indicate that he would submit to whatever moral arraignment Mr. Jones deemed advisable to make.

But George made none. He rose hastily, sought his knife and, without so much as by your leave, slashed the twine, flunk aside the paper, and threw the rug across the counterpane. It was the Yhiordes. There was not the slightest doubt in his mino. He had heard it described, he had seen a photograph of it, he knew its history and, most vital of all, he owned a good copy of it.

Against temptation that was robust and energetic and alluring (like the man who insists upon your having a drink when you want it and ought not to have it), what chance had conscience, grown innocuous in the long period of the young man's good behavior? Collectors are always honest before and after that moment arrives when they want something desperately; and George was no more saintly than his kind. And how deep Ryanne and his confederates had delved into human nature, how well they could read and judge it, was made manifest in this moment of George's moral relapse.

Bagdad, the jinns, Sinbad, the Thousand and One Nights, Alibaba and the Forty Thieves: George was transported mentally to that city, standing between the Tigris and Euphrates, in all its white glory of a thousand years gone. Ryanne, the room and its furnishings, all had vanished, all save the exquisite fabric patterned out of wool and cotton and knotted with that mingling love and skill and patience the world knows no more. He let his hand stray over it. How many knees had pressed its thick yet pliant substance? How many strange scenes had it mutely witnessed, scenes of beauty, of terror? It shone under the light like the hide of a healthy hound.

The nerves of a smoker are generally made apparent by the rapidity of his exhalations. These two, in the several minutes, had filled the room with a thick, blue haze; and through this the elder man eyed the younger. The sign of the wolf gleamed in his eyes, but without animosity, modified as it was by the half-friendly, half-cynical smile.

"I'll risk it," George said finally, having stepped off the magical carpet, as it were. "I can't give you a thousand pounds tonight. I can give you three hundred, and the balance tomorrow, between ten and eleven, at Cook's."

"That will be agreeable to me."

George passed over all the available cash he had, rolled up the treasure and tucked it under his arm. That somewhere in the world was a true believer, wailing and beating his breast and calling down from Allah curses upon the giaour, the dog of an infidel, who had done this thing, disturbed George not in the least.

"I say," as he opened the door, "you must tell me all about the adventure. It must have been a thriller."

"It was," replied Ryanne. "The story will keep. Later, if you care to hear it."

"Of course," added George, moved by a discretionary thought, "this transaction is just between you and me."

"You may lay odds on that," heartily. "Well, good night. See you at Cook's in the morning."

"Good night." George passed down the corridor to the adjoining room.

And now, bang! goes Pandora's box.

CHAPTER IV.
An Old Acquaintance.

That faculty which decides on the lawlessness of our actions: so the noted etymologist described conscience makes cowards of us all, tinguished intellect to add that conscence makes cowards of us all. Ay. She may be overcome at times, side-tracked for any special desire that demands a clear way but she's after us, fast enough, with that battered red lantern of here, which, brought down from all tongues crisply into our own, reads —"Don't do it!" She herself is not wholly without cunning. She rarely stands boldly upon the track to flag us as we come. She realizes that she might be permanently ditched. No; it is far safer to run after us and catch us. A digression, perhaps, but more pertinently an application.

Temptation then no longer at his shoulder, George began to have qualms, little chaps, who started buzzing into his moral ears with all that maddening, interminable drone which makes one marvel however do school-teachers survive their first terms. Among these qualms there was none that pleaded for the desolate Turk or his minions whose carelessness had made the theft possible. For all George cared, the Moslem might grind his forehead in the soulless sand and make the air palpitate wth his plaints to Allah. No. The disturbance was due to the fact that never before had he been wittingly the purchaser of stolen goods. He never tried to gloze over the subtle distinction between knowing and suspecting; and if he had been variously suspicious in regard to certain past bargains, conscience had found no sizeable wedge for her demurrers. The Yhiordes was confessedly stolen.

He paused, with his hand upon the door-knob of his room. If he didn't keep the rug, it would fall into the hands of a collector less scrupulous. To return it to the Pasha at Bagdad would be pure folly, and thankless. It was one of the most beautiful weavings in existence. It was as priceless in its way as any Raphael in the Vatican. And he desired its possession intensely. Why not? Insidious phrase! Was it not better that the world should see and learn what a wonderful craft the making of a rare rug had been, than to allow it to return to the sordid chamber of a harem, to inevitable ruin? As Ryanne said, what the deuce was a fanatical Turk or Arab to him?

To buy your wife a coat.

On an order of table d'hote,
But when you pay

And when we're through,
We haven't a sou,

Something New in Lodges

"Pinkey" is the nickname of the chocolate colored Chesterfield who presides over the bar in a small, unique and out-of-the-way liquid refreshment establishment in Washington patronized by newspaper correspondents, visiting celebrities and government officials. He is a great "j'iner," and devotes his one evening "off" a week to his several lodge duties. Being missed on one of these occasions by one of his friends and patrons, who had lugged to his place a suit of evening clothes which he thought would fit the Pinkerton form, on the next evening regretful reference was made to it, the suit having been bestowed on another, a waiter in a rival hostelry.

"I'se mighty obliged to you, sah," groaned Pinkey, "mighty obliged, jes' the same. This'll teach me a lesson to stay on the job."

"Attending one of your lodge meetings, I suppose?" queried his friend of the dress suit.

"Well, not exactly, sah," replied Pinkey, "not exactly, sah. You see, we was jes' organizing the colored Hibernians."—Washington Star.

The Man for the Place

Dignity and seriousness of conduct appertain to courts of law, but there are now and then judges who give occasoional rein to their sense of humor.

The late Lord Young of the Scottish bench was responsible for enlivening many a dull case. One of the most amusing remarks that ever fell from his lips was the reply to a counsel who urged on behalf of a plaintiff of somewhat bibulous appearance. "My client, my lord, is a most able man, and holds a very responsible position; he is manager of some water works."

After a long look, the judge answered, "Yes, he looks like a man who could be trusted with any amount of water."—M. A. P.

Not Right Kind of Horse

General Basil W. Duke was in Lexington, Kr., a few days ago to have a look at the statute of Gen. John Morgan, the Confederate raider.

The fund to build the statue, which is life sized and which represents Gen. Morgan mounted on his famous black mare, Black Bess, was raised by the Daughters of the Confederacy, after years of work.

On his arrival Gen. Duke went around to the Lafayette hotel, where he was joined by Col. Milton Young and Col. Christopher Chenault.

"Well, we'll go out now and look over John and Black Bess," said the general after the usual courtesies. "Have either of you seen the statue?"

"No; we have been waiting for you to come along," replied Col. Young.

The three went to the statute and Gen. Duke remarked:

"Fine likeness of John, but say, gentlemen, this isn't Black Bess."

Then the three began laughing. They were still laughing when they lined up for more courtesies at the hotel. Gen. Duke called up one of his nieces on the telephone.

"Your Daughters of the Confederacy certainly have a fine statute of John," he said, "but that statue of the horse isn't Black Bess. You better call that horse Black Bill."

The chances are that if the sculptor doesn't agree to make the horse over again Gen. Morgan will be unhorsed entirely and placed on a pedestal.

How To Get Rid of Catarrh

A Simple Safe, Reliable Way, and it Costs Nothing to Try

Those who suffer from catarrh know its miseries. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment discovered by Dr. Blosser, who, for over thirty-six years, has been treating catarrh successfully.

His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream, or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment without cost, send your address to Dr. J. W. Blosser, 186 Walton street, Atlanta, Ga., and he will send you by return mail enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal headaches, catarrhal deafness, asthma, bronchitis, colds and all catarrhal complications. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediately.

PUBLIC DEBATE

Dear Editor:—

With reference to Dr. Lindsey Johnson's statement that some twenty-two millions of the people of the United States require or will require glasses, to my mind even this figure underestimates the true proposition. But assuming that he is correct, this at first sight appears to be an alarming degeneration. Bpt this is not so in fact. It is mainly a sign of advanced education and greater wisdom. Nowadays vast numbers of people wear glasses, not so much to improve vision or see better, but purely to prevent over-ocular exertion and consequent strain.

The necessity for this arises from the fact that we are daily becoming more a nation of mental than physical laborers, and I think it is accepted by all that weariness from mental overwork is far more distressing than physical exhaustion. The man who toils and expends little mental energy can at the end of the day take ease with that delicious feeling of rest which is quite foreign to the mental worker. Herein lies the secret of the increase of spectacle wearers.

It is found, and proved beyond doubt by the experience of thousands, that the correction of the smaller errors of refraction (which were ignored by the old schools) causes an immense saving in nervous energy. The individual whose eyes are thus corrected can turn that energy, which was previously wasted, to more useful account, whether in business, studying or home life, and, at the same time, become less irritated with the worries and difficulties of the day.

Very truly,
H. CLAY EVENSON.

CHILD'S HEAD SOLID MASS OF HUMOR

It Was Awful. Cried Continually. Had to Hold and Watch Him to Keep Him from Scratching. Suffering Was Dreadful.

Had not Used Half a Set of Cuticura Remedies Before Head was Clear and Free from Eczema.

"I think the Cuticura Remedies are the best remedies for eczema I have ever heard of. My mother had a child who had a rash on its head when it was real young. Doctor called it baby rash. He gave us medicine, but it did no good. In a few days the head was a solid mass, a running sore. It was awful, the child cried continually. We had to hold him and watch him [to keep him] from scratching the sore. His suffering was dreadful. At last we remembered Cuticura Remedies. We got a dollar bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bar of Cuticura Soap. We gave the Resolvent as directed, washed the head with the Cuticura Soap, and applied the Cuticura Ointment. We had not used half before the child's head was clear and free from eczema, and it has never come back again. His head was healthy and he had a beautiful head of hair. I think the Cuticura Ointment very good for the hair. It makes the hair grow and prevents falling hair." (Signed) Mrs. Francis Lund, Plain City, Utah, Sept. 19, 1910.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are for sale throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each with 32-p. booklet on the skin will be mailed free, on application. Address Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 12B, Boston.

Old, But Still Good

A sailor who had been to a church service where he heard some fine music was afterward descanting upon an anthem which had given him great pleasure.

A listening shipmate finally asked: "I say, Bill, what's a hanthem?"

"What?" exclaimed Bill. "Do you mean to say you don't know what a hanthem is?"

"Not me."

"Well, then, I'll tell yer. If I was to ask yer ''Ere Bill, give me that 'andspike;' that wouldn't be a hanthem. But if I was to say, 'Bill, Bill, Bill, give, give, give me, give me, that, Bill, give me, give me, that 'and, give me that 'andspike, spike, spike, Bill, give me that, that that 'and 'andspike, 'and 'andspike, spike spike, spike, ahmen, ahmen, Bill, give me that 'andspike, spike, ahmen!" why that would be a hanthem."—London Tit-Bits.

Cut This Out
Recipe That Breaks a Cold in a Day and Cures Any Curable Cough

"From your druggist get half ounce of Concentrated Pine compound and two ounces of Glycerine. Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey; shake well and use in doses of one to two teaspoonfuls after each meal and at bed time." Smaller doses to children according to age. But be sure to get only the genuine (Globe) Concentrated Pine. Each half ounce bottle comes in a sealed tin screw-top case. If your druggist does not have it he will quickly get it. Many mixtures are of large quantity and cheaper, but it is risky to experiment. This formula comes from a reliable doctor and is certain. This was first published here six years ago and local druggists say it has been in constant demand ever since.

ENGINE CAB BURNS; CREW GETS SOAKED

While the hose between the engine and the cab of engine No. 4502 of the C. M. & St. P. railroad, was being thawed out at the north side yards yesterday the cab took fire and in their attempt to extinguish the blaze the crew all became badly water soaked.

The cab caught fire when the crew was thawing out the frozen hose between the engine and the cab and in order to put out the fire the engine was hauled over to the water tank. Here the fire was put out but after it had been extinguished the crew got the full benefit of the water from the tank.

LA CROSSE BOY HEAD OF CLUB

Obert Sletten Elected as Chairman of Progressive Republican League at Harvard

The Wisconsin spirit of "progressiveism" is making itself felt among the older men at Harvard. Better than that, one of the prime movers in the political game is a former La Crosse man. Obert Sletten, formerly of 506 North Sixth street, La Crosse, was recently elected chairman of the Harvard Progressive Republican club, which has been organized to promulgate progressive ideas among the students. H. E. Stearns, another Wisconsin man, was made a member of the executive committee. Mr. Sletten is a graduate of the La Crosse high school and is well and favorably known here. The following clipping from the Boston Transcript explains the purpose of the organization of which Mr. Sletten is the head:

An organization of progressive republicans at Harvard was perfected last evening at a meeting where fully two hundred students were in attendance. The meeting indorsed, in part, the platform published by the Massachusetts Progressive Republican league, but voted to appoint a committee which will outline the stand of the Harvard organization at a later meeting. No candidate will be indorsed for the present. The governing body of the club will consist of an executive committee, as follows: Obert Sletten, Wisconsin, chairman; H. J. Bischoff, Kansas; C. W. Beale, Virginia; H. E. Stevens, Wisconsin; J. W. Eckelberry, Ohio.

CHURCH NEWS

The Greatest of Schools

The International Sunday School Lessons Committee, meeting recently in Indianapolis, in which city was held its first meeting forty years ago, mapped out new Bible lessons for English speaking Sunday schools in this and other lands that contain learners to the number of 25,000,000. There is a British section, and action is taken here only after consultation with it, but leadership in this vast religious educational work is in America, and has been from its inception.

Lessons which these millions of children study, and will study until 1917, are as follows: This year the Life of Christ as related by St. Mark, but with citations from some other of the evangelists; 1913: the Old Testament from Genesis to Joshua, or to be more specific, from the Creation to the third settlement in Canaan. 1914: the Life of Christ, concluded from 1912. 19:15: the Old Testament, beginning with the Judges, taking both Books of the Kings, and the Greater Prophets. 1916: the New Testament, Acts, Epistles and Revelations. 1917: first half of the year, the Gospel of St. John, and last half, from the Book of the Kings to and including the minor prophets.

Opening for Christian Workers

Nearly 700 men and women are wanted for the Christian mission fields of this and other countries. Once a year the Student Volunteer Movement collects and publishes lists of workers sought for by the societies of North America. Often it is incomplete, but this year the number and variety are beyond any previous one. Volunteers are wanted for medical, educational, and evangelistic work. The salaries are small, but sure, and there is choice of practically every country under the sun. The contract for service is two to seven years. For nearly all of the positions only graduates of college or high grade training school are accepted.

The World Unity Movement

Bishop Anderson of Chicago, Bishop Vincent of Cincinnati, Bishop Brent of the Philippines, and the Rev. Dr. William T. Manning, rector of Trinity Church, New York, have been appointed by the Episcopal Commission named in 1910 to further the cause of Christian unity, to visit England this summer and there explain the purposes of the proposed World Conference on Faith and Order. Bishop Anderson is president of the Commission, and Bishop Vincent is chairman of the Episcopal House of Bishops.

NORMAL MUSEUM GETS NEW CURIO

Chinese Snuff-box More than 2,000 Years Old; Chorus Rehearses for Cantata

The latest addition to the Normal museum which is under the supervision of Prof. Sanford came last week in the form of a Chinese snuff box presented by Prof. Fairchild, who obtained the same while he was in China. It is a brass affair with inscriptions which the natives told Mr. Fairchild indicated an age of more than 2,000 years.

The chorus of several hundred voices is rehearsing Rossini's cantata "Stabat Mater," which will be put on in the near future.

Under the captaincy of Prof. Fairchild a company of men are going through military tactics in the gymnasium which is the form of physical training meted out to the male element of the student body. Prof. Fairchild is assisted by students who have been or who are members of the state militia.

Prof. Nurse of the modern language department who has been seriously ill with an attack of pneumonia is reported better and his early recovery is looked for.

Miss Harriet Oltman, supervisor of music has returned from St. Paul, where she attended grand opera and engaged soloists for the "Stabat Mater."

Benjamin Stevens is back after hearing the Chicago Grand Opera company in St. Paul.

TAMMANY BRAVE DEAD

TOM GRADY, ONCE PROMINENT LIEUTENANT OF TAMMANY BOSS, DIES IN NEW YORK HOME

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—State Senator Thomas F. Grady, former president of the National Fraternal Order of Eagles and for many years a power in Tammany hall, died at his home in this city today. He had been ill for several weeks.

Ever since he was "turned down" by the Tammany organization and refused the office of president of the state senate, although as long as the party was in the minority he was acclaimed its leader in the upper house of the legislature, Grady has been on the decline. His intimates insisted today that, although he was not noted for sentiment, "the ingratitude broke his heart." Some weeks ago he was taken to a hospital, but yesterday, knowing there was no hope, he insisted on being taken home to die.

SPOTLIGHTS

"THE BALKAN PRINCESS"

The Shubert's greatest musical attraction, Miss Louise Gunning, in "The Balkan Princess," will be the offering at the La Crosse theater on Thursday night, February 8th, for one night only.

This charming prima donna was last seen here in "Marcelle."

The company numbers nearly a hundred, and aside from its musical charm, is said to be gaily caparisoned and to contain sufficient comedy for a half dozen ordinary music shows. Miss Gunning is supported by a metropolitan cast, several of whom have been the features of independent starring tours. Included in this list are Mark Smith, who will be remembered as the salesman in "The Traveling Salesman;" Teddy Webb, for many years of Trivoli company fame; Harry P. Gribbon, Amy Leicester, Ethel Intropodi and seventy others.

"THE GOOSE GIRL"

Romantic drama in its most beguiling form is to be the offering at the La Crosse theater Saturday, Feb. 10, matinee and night.

Geo. D. Baker's dramatization of "The Goose Girl," Harold MacGrath's well known story of fiction, is the attraction, and to those lovers of this form of entertainment, as well as the patrons of the theater in general, the assurance of both theater and company management is offered. "The Goose Girl" is a play that will appeal to all.

Mr. MacGrath's book achieved a wonderful vogue among readers of fiction, it being brimful of action from cover to cover. The contrasting characters, the romantic atmosphere, the delightful dialogue, the exquisite love themes, the subtle schemings, the dramatic scenes and situations, have all been blended by Mr. Baker into a play that will prove welcome to the masses.

Miss Virginia Ackerman as Gretchen and Mr. Victor Sutherland as Carmichael, are the leading members of the organization which comprises other names well known to theater goers, all of whom in the ensemble are pronounced most acceptable.

Wedding Rings

Our store has acquired a great reputation on wedding rings. The reason is obvious. We have always sold the highest grade of solid gold rings, either 18k or 14K U. S. assay, made without seams or joints. A soldered ring will eventually break and will show a black streak. We have all weights, all styles, all sizes, including extra large sizes, and can fit any finger without cutting, which spoils the ring. Initials and dates engraved free.

Prices, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00 and $8.00.

BACK HURT SUFFERED TERRIBLY

Miss Gothrum Endures Extreme Pain for Long Time. School Teacher's Advice Finally Brings Relief.

NEWBURG, Ala.—"For over a year," writes Miss Myrtle Gothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my limbs. My back hurt, and my head ached nearly all the time.

I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor treated me, but he only gave me temporary relief.

I was certainly in bad health, and suffered greatly with womanly troubles. My school teacher advised me to take Cardui, and I began to take it, at once.

I took two bottles, in all, and was CURED.

My sister-in-law also used your remedy and was greatly benefited.

I feel it my duty to reccommend Cardui, and I shall always praise the medicine to sick and suffering women."

No sick or ailing woman can fail to be interested in the experience of others similarly afflicted.

If you are weak, tired, worn-out, or suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache or other symptoms of womanly trouble, you are urged to try Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Thousands of sick and suffering women have regained their health by taking Cardui. Why not you?

QUALITY OR QUANTITY

Which Do You Prefer?—Newbro's Herpicide Represents Quality

Did you ever have a dealer offer you a large bottle of something and tell you it was a better remedy for the hair than Newbro's Herpicide and cheaper because in a larger bottle?

What? Certainly we knew you had. Many other people have, too.

What would you say to that same dealer were he to tell you a silver dollar was worth more than a five dollar gold piece because it is larger?

Such an attempt being a reflection upon your good sense you would probably say some rather pointed things to him. You would be justified. Your selfrespect would demand it.

Well, there are just as many good reasons for the difference in size between those bottles as there are for the difference in size between the silver dollar and the five dollar gold piece.

The truth is that the large bottle isn't half large enough.

There is more virtue in a half pint of Newbro's Herpicide than in a gallon of some of the so-called hair preparations.

There is a dollar's worth of results in the bottle of Herpicide, but do you know what is in the other?

No? Then why buy it? Your judgment, intelligence and the experience of your friends, if not your own, cry out against it.

You know when you go into that store that Herpicide is what you need and want.

You KNOW that Herpicide is the original scalp phophylactic.

You KNOW that Herpicide kills the dandruff germ.

You KNOW that Herpicide stops falling hair.

You KNOW that Herpicide makes the hair light, fluffy and beautiful.

You know these things in the same way you know that the five dollar gold piece, nothwithstanding its size, is more valuable than the silver dollar.

Then insist on having genuine Herpicide.

One dollar size bottles are sold and guaranteed by all druggists.

Applications obtained at the best barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich. Hoeschler Bros., Special Agents.

CUTTING RED TAPE

In his youth the late Sir William S. Gilbert, the dramatist, was employed in one of the government offices in London. On his first appearance there he noticed that one of the senior clerks was trying to do his work while toppling about in a chair from which one caster was missing.

The clerk, who found the situation annoying, vented his vexation freely. "Why don't you have the chair mended?" asked young Gilbert.

"The department will mend broken chairs, but the loss of a caster doesn't come within the regulations," explained the clerk. "Unless the chair leg is broken they won't undertake repairs."

"Then you have your own remedy," said Gilbert, mildly.

For a moment the elder man looked hard at the promising young recruit, but said nothing at the time. At 5 o'clock, as his colleagues began to file out of the office, they saw him seize the poker and with one blow smash the chair leg. The next morning he had a new chair.—London Chronicle.

TOWN REPORTED BURNING

WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 3.—Bellington, a town of 3,000 in Barbour county, is threatened with destruction by fire. Word received here at 11 a. m., states that $60,000 damage has already been done, and much more is expected.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 3.—E. F. Powers, one of the oldest editors in the state, in point of service, died at his home here today. He had been in the newspaper business since 1869 and with the Champaign Times of which he was editor, since 1879.

Almost Lost His Life

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the Discovery. HAND MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED

Coroner Kleeber Announces Investigation thus Far Has Proven Fruitless

WILL CONTINUE THE PROBE

May Link Mystery with Skoglund Death; Demands Statement of Company

Investigation into the finding of the mysterious forearm and hand in a shipment of coal at the north side Milwaukee railroad yards Wednesday, will be continued until it has been learned from where the arm came and all the details of the problem have been explained. This is the declaration of Coroner L. Kleeber today following a thorough investigation at the north side yards yesterday when several of the local railroad men were examined and questioned.

Mr. Kleeber today declared that owing to the arm being cremated by being thrown into the roundhouse furnace, he is practically without a clue upon which to work, but that the matter will be carried on until all mystery has been cleared.

To Investigate Accident

"I will demand a full statement from the officials of the C. M. & St. P. railroad company in regard to the accident which resulted in the death of Edward Skoglund, the conductor who was killed at New Lisbon Monday, and will question Blaine Thompson, a brakeman residing at 127 North Seventh street, who is said to have witnessed the accident," said Mr. Kleeber.

"William Bubester, one of the men who found the arm and who later destroyed it, declares it was the left arm and this may lead to a solution of the case. If I find that the left arm of Edward Skoglund was not torn from the body or that it was picked up and properly taken care of, it will be almost evident that the finding of the arm is the result of foul play.

"If, however, the left arm of Edward Skoglund is missing, the logical conclusion will be that the arm which was found belonged to him. The arm which was found Wednesday was in a shipment of coal received from Milwaukee and which must have passed through New Lisbon about the time of the accident which resulted in Skoglund's death."

JANE ADDAMS MAY VISIT LA CROSSE

That Miss Jane Addams, one of the leading suffragettes of the country, may speak before the La Crosse Equal Suffrage society, is probable. Efforts are being made by the state organizations to have Miss Addams make a tour of the Wisconsin cities and deliver lectures, and word received from headquarters intimates that the officers will be successful in getting her to undertake this work.

If Miss Addams decides to give this series of lectures she will visit La Crosse, Superior, Green Bay, Oshkosh, Wausau, Beloit and Eau Claire. She is considered an excellent lecturer and is one of the leading workers in the suffrage movement.

EFFORTS TO RAISE SUBMARINE FAIL

PORTSMOUTH, England, Feb. 3.—Efforts to raise the submarine A3 which sank yesterday failed today, although men had been working desperately for more than twenty-four hours. The vessel lies deep in the shoal and in such a position that hawsers cannot be adjusted effectively. A giant hawser broke, knocking seven men from a lighter and severely injuring them. The men were stunned and narrowly escaped drowning.

THE WEEK FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The weekly bank statement as issued today shows the following changes:

Excess cash reserve, increase $317,000.

Loans, increase $20,460,000.

Specie, increase, $6,837,000.

Legal tenders, decrease, $2,453,000.

Net deposits increase, $17,384,000

Circulation, decrease, $131,000.

Total loans, $1,998,407,000.

The surplus of the banks is $46,-$15,000 as compared with $36,045,-300 last year, and $27,141,425 two years ago.

(Copyright, 1912, by the Evening Post Company.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The bank statement today showed the turn in the movement of heaping up surplus bank reserves, which almost invariably comes in the opening week of February. Between the week's $2,-750,000 gold exports and the decided falling off in receipts of currency from interior banks, cash holdings of the clearing house institutions are reduced by $3,100,000, and since the loan expansion has continued at the rate of $24,000,(surplus reserves are substantially reduced.

Today's stock market was entirely negligible; its movement was in trifling fractions, and it merely reflected suspension of all activity. Foreign markets were as apathetic as our own.

TO PLAY INDOOR GOLF AT THE Y

New Arrangement Makes It Possible for Golfers to Practice During the Winter

An announcement of special interest to all the golfers of the city will be sent out the first of the week, when it will be made known that the Y. M. C. A. has established an indoor game of golf so that the golfers may keep their swing and game in good form throughout the winter when playing out of doors is not possible. The indoor game provides for match and medal play and provides for scoring driving with both wood and iron clubs, approaching and putting. Those who have tried it out are enthusiastic over it. The nine hole course game had been arranged so that it is possible to parallel the game played at the La Crosse Country club and use the same handicapping as is set for the members there. It is planned to have match games and tournaments after the game has been thoroughly tried out. A special schedule of hours will be posted for the use of the game which will be set up in the gymnasium and as it is a special privilege a small fee will be charged for the season besides the regular membership in the association.

FROM HIGH LIFE TO COUNTY JAIL

Fifteen Cent Sale Brings Thirty Day Sentence; Destitute Children Can't Be Found

From feasting and consuming champagne in the luxurious apartments of modern hotels to existing on simple diet of the county jail, is the sudden drop experienced by Mabel and John Daly. This sudden change from high to simple life is directly due to working on the sympathies of one Gustave Haralsrud to the extent of fifteen cents, or at least that is the charge which resulted in the thirty days' sentence.

The trouble began when Mabel Daly, after having made a few hundred sales, presented a small envelope to Haralsrud bearing the following, in print: "Friend, I am a poor widow and have three children and an invalid mother to support. Please purchase the enclosed article for fifteen cents." The enclosed article was a small combination knife worth about three or four cents. Haralsrud "bit" but when a man appeared shortly after and presented him with another envelope with this inscription: "Friend, I am an epileptic and unable to work; please purchase inclosed article for ten cents," Haralsrud began to "sit up and take notice."

"What's in it?" demanded Haralsrud, in a suspicious manner but when he found that it was an exact duplicate of the knife he had paid fifteen cents for he maintained his position on the chair with difficulty.

An investigation into the family history of the epileptic and widow failed to locate the children and invalid mother.

They were charged with obtaining money under false pretense and pleaded guilty.

WINONA IS EASY FOR THE HIGHS

Locals Win Game 39 to 4 and Allow Opponents Only One Field Goal

The La Crosse high school basketball team defeated the Winona high school quintet by a score of 39 to 4 at Winona last night. The game was entirely a onesided affair and was at all times in the nands of the local boys. During the entire game the playing was under La Crosse's basket and after the first few minutes of playing, the Minnesota boys devoted their time to holding La Crosse down rather than trying to score themselves. The locals were far superior to the upriver boys in shooting and in floor work, and for long periods they kept the ball circulating among themselves to the complete mystification of their opponents.

Hayes and Jungbluth played strong games at guard, holding the Winona forwards down to one field basket. Stavrum and Strum did excellent work at forward. They were very clever in keeping the ball in La Crosse's territory. "Lump" Weisse, playing at center, was the star of the game as in addition to breaking up many of his opponent's plays, he made 12 of the 18 field baskets that were scored.

Hollowel and Parr were the mainstays of the Winona team and often broke up the locals' plays. The lineup:

La Crosse—Weisse, c; Strum, rf; Stavrum, lf; Hayes, rg; Jungbluth, lg; Chamberlain and Dornbach, utility men.

Winona—Parr, c; Hollowel, rf; Thom, lf; Wood, rg; Rother, lg; Williams, sub.

Summary—Field baskets: Weisse 12, Stavrum 3, Strum 2, Jungbluth 1, Hollowel 1. Free throws: Stavrum 2, Hayes 1, Parr, 2. Referee, Shaw, La Crosse; umupire, Van Vranken, Winona; timekeeper, Millington, La Crosse; time of halves 20 anod 15 minutes.

BOYCE CLAN GATHERS

RELATIVES OF MURDERED MAN COME TO FORT WORTH TO SNEAD TRIAL—HARD TO GET JURY

FORT WORTH, Texas, Feb. 3.—A gathering of the Boyce clan in Fort Worth today marked the sessions of court when under the direction of Judge Swayne, the defense and prosecution resumed their work of selecting a jury to hear the case of J. B. Snead, charged with the murder of A. G. Boyce, Sr.

Henry Boyce, a banker of Dalhart, Texas, a third son of the slain man, accompanied two other brothers. The three sat directly opposite the man who coolly shot their father to death because he believed he had aided A. G. Boyce, Jr., in eloping with Mrs. Snead, but Snead passed no sign of recognition and kept his face turned from them.

Two veniremen were excused because the stork had recently visited their homes. Another reported that his wife had eloped and that he was prejudiced in favor of the defendant. Another boldly pulled out a whiskey flask while being examined, and with the man whose wife had eloped, was excused, together with three ranchmen who said there was no one to attend to their stock.

SCHOOL GIRL SLAYS SELF FOR LOVE

HARTFORD, Mich., Feb. 3.—Because Verne Haney, 14, her schoolmate, did not answer a love note promptly, Grace Cutler, 14, is dead today. She committed suicide before her class in the public school by taking strychnine. After she had taken the poison, she informed her teacher of her act. A physician was immediately summoned, but all efforts to save the girl failed.

The girl wrote the boy another note, saying: "If you love me tell me so and reply by noon, or I'll take poison."

MAHON WITHDRAWS AS CANDIDATE

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 3.—Assemblyman Thomas J. Mahon of Eland last night announced his withdrawal from the race for congress in the Eighth district. The fact that several progressive candidates were in the field and would oppose George F. Hambrecht of Grand Rapids, a conservative, made an elimination program advisable, and after several conferences, including one with Governor McGovern, yesterday afternoon, he decided to follow this course. He proposes to run for re-election to the legislature and it is understood he will be a candidate for speaker.

TWO BOAT COLLISIONS

HAMBURG LINER ALLEGHENY SUNK BY POMERAN—ALL SAVED. FRUIT STEAMER HITS LUMBER BOAT

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 3.—The crippled British steamer Pomeran, which yesterday struck and sank the Hamburg-American liner Allegheny, one hundred miles at sea off the Capes of the Chesapeake, arrived in Hampton Roads this morning, carrying aboard the rescued passengers and crew of the Allegheny. They will be landed at Newport News. She came in under her own steam after being accompanied to within a short distance of the coast by the revenue cutter Onondaga.

Almost simultaneously with the collision off the Capes of the Chesapeake between the steamship Pomeran, bound from Baltimore to Leith, and the Hamburg-American liner Allegheny, the Norwegian fruit steamer Cecil was in collision nearby with three masted schooner George W. Truitt, Jr., a lumber laden vessel of Seaford, Dal., bound from Jacksonville to New York. The Cecil today towed the Truitt into Newport News for repairs.

NEWLANDS BILL IS FIRST GUN

Resolution in Senate Committee Is Test of Conservation Feeling in the Senate

FAVORABLE REPORT EXPECTED

Senator Newlands Is Confident that the Committee Will Report His Measure Favorably

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Friends of conservation will watch with interest the contest now in progress in the senate committee on public lands over the Newlands resolution declaring it to be the sense of that committee that there should be legislation at this session providing for the leasing of public lands containing coal, oil, iron or phosphates. For a long time it has been evident that the battle over conservation measures must be fought in the room of this committee and the presentation of the Newlands resolution was the first gun. Senator Newlands believes that his resolution will be supported by a majority of the committee and with that body once on record as favoring legislation at this session it will be a comparative easy task to work out the details. He suggests that the provisions for leasing be so drawn as to prevent monopolistic control and insure fair prices to the consumer, but be sufficiently liberal to permit of the proper development of our natural resources.

As almost all of the good timber is now included in forestry reservations and sold under the stumpage system, the ownership of the lands remaining with the United States, he has not included timber in his proposition. He announced, however, that he would later present a similar resolution in regard to waterpower.

To met the objection that by leasing the public lands the revenue therefrom would flow into the public treasury while the property itself would be exempt from taxation by the states by reason of the fact that title would remain with the federal government, Senator Newlands proposes a division of the gross income from the leases—75 per cent to the state or territory where the lands are located and 25 per cent to the federal government.

The resolution precipitated a discussion which continued until the committee adourned. It will come up at the next meeting as unfinished business and Newlands intends to press its consideration to its adoption or defeat.

STEEL TRUST MEN ARE DENIED FREEDOM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3. — Employes of the Steel corporation may profit through the co-operative dividend sharing plan, but they are denied freedom of speech and action, according to the testimony of John A. Fitch, a sociologist investigator to the Stanley committee today.

"The pension, bonus and stock sharing plans hedge the employe about and prevent his independent action," he said. "They bind him to the employer. The steel corporation has its high-principled men, but nevertheless it wields a power that makes it a menace to the peace and well-being of its employes. Their attitude toward labor has caused discontent throughout the country."

WILL GIVE $500 TO SICK OF LA CROSSE AND VICINITY

Indiana Scientist Who Originated the Now Famous "Home Treatment" Offers $1.00 Treatment Free to Sick and Ailing

In order that every reader of The Tribune who needs treatment may have an opportunity to test this celebrated medicine, the now famous Indiana scientist has come to the front with an offer to give absolutely free a full size $1.00 package to five hundred persons to prove the wonderful claims which have been made for it. In making this offer the scientist said: "I know that there are many people who have been suffering for years with some chronic disease and many of them have spent large sums of money seeking a cure. I know that these people hesitate about investing money in medicine because they have despaired of ever getting well. Thousands have told me that story and many thousands of the same people have told me afterwards that my treatment had cured them after doctors and everything else had failed. I want to show these despairing people that all the newspaper talk about my treatment is absolutely true. I want to prove to a limited number—no matter what the disease, no matter how long they may have suffered, no matter how blue and discouraged—that my treatment really and actually does accomplish the wonderful results that have been reported."

People who suffer from Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble, Stomach Trouble, Liver or Bowel Disorders, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Coughs, Weak Lungs, Lumbago, Piles, Urinary Disorders, Female Weaknesses of any kind, the weak, worn out, broken-down and despondent will be delighted at the effect of a few doses. This wonderful treatment creates a fine appetite and helps the digestive organs to carry on their functions as they should. It strengthens the kidneys, too, and drives rheumatism poisons from the blood as if by magic. That is why people who try it become so enthusiastic.

Any reader of The Tribune who will try this extraordinary medicine that has created so much excitement by its cures can obtain absolutely free a full $1.00 treatment by simply filling in the coupon below or writing a letter describing their case in their own words, if they prefer, and mailing it today to James W. Kidd, Fort Wayne, Indiana. No money need be sent and no charge of any kind will be made.

Ask Your Doctor

It is impossible to be well, simply impossible, if the bowels are constipated. Waste products, poisonous substances, must be removed from the body at least once each day, or there will be trouble. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills, gently laxative, all vegetable. He knows why they act directly on the liver. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

HARMON PLOT UNCOVERED

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 3.—A new political scheme has developed to throw to Governor Harmon of Ohio the twenty-four Virginia votes in the democratic national convention which, up to this time, have been counted for Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey. The plan is to arouse intense enthusiasm "at home" for United States Senator Thomas S. Martin, democratic leader in the senate, and have Virginia's delegation instructed for Martin instead of Woodrow Wilson, who was born and reared in Virginia. Senator Martin, controlling his own delegation, could then use it as he pleased.

Both men are in the heavyweight class and have first class reputations. The match is for a $100 side bet and a seventy-five, twenty-five per cent split of the gate receipts.

BERGER KICKS ON COUNT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Socialist and aristocrat clashed in the house yesterday when Berger, (Soc., Wis.,) protested against a recess for the purpose of hearing Count Von Leutzow of Austria. When Majority Leader Underwood moved that the house recess for fifteen minutes to hear Von Leutzow, who is traveling in the interest of world peace, Berger jumped to his feet to object. "The count's only claim to fame," asserted the socialinst, "is that twenty years ago he fought a duel in which nobody was hurt. He never was a member of a parliamentary body. If he were, I should not object." Count Von Leutzow made a brief address on peace, speaking from the speaker's desk.

INDIGESTION IS ENDED FOREVER

Out-of-order Stomachs feel fine five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of Indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, Belching, Gas on Stomach, Heartburn, Headaches from stomach, Nausea, Bad Breath, Water Brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no Indigestion or Sleepless nights or Headache or Stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapepsin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.

MARSHAL FALLS 3 FLOORS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Feb. 3.—Assistant Fire Marshal George Dillinger fell three floors down an elevator shaft at the Eagle White Lead company's plant yesterday when he was going through the building after a fire. Dillinger slipped on an icy floor and landed in ten feet of water. Fellow firemen rescued him. Firemen mounted the roofs of adjoining buildings and with ropes tied about their bodies to prevent them from slipping, fought the flames, which caused a loss of $40,000.

POSTAL FRAUD ARRESTED

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Indicted in the federal court of Omaha for using the mails to defraud, L. C. Stubbs was arrested here today and arraigned before Commissioner Shields. He agreed to return to Omaha for trial and was remanded into the custody of Postoffice Inspector Furniss. It was alleged that Stubbs organized a dry goods company and a $25,000 corporation to deal in toilet articles and sold their securities, which the government alleges were worthless, through the mails to hundreds of small investors in the middle west.

Prescription that Soon Knocks Rheumatism

The only logical treatment for rheumatism is through the blood. The poisons that settle in muscles, joints and back, causing severe pain, must be dissolved and expelled from the system or there can be no relief. This prescription from a noted doctor is said to be working wonders all over the country. Hundreds of the worst cases were cured by it here last winter. "From your druggist get one ounce of Toris compound (in original sealed package) and one ounce of syrup of Sarsaparilla compound. Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Shake the bottle and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bed-time." Results come the first day. If your druggist does not have Toris compound in stock he will get it in a few hours from his wholesale house. Don't be influenced to take some patent medicine instead of this. Insist on having the genuine Toris compound in the original, one ounce, sealed, yellow package.

Chicago Grain Letter

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Bullish cable reports and increases in ocean cargo tariffs kept prices stiff in the grain pit despite a campaign of profit taking following the heavy increase in prices during the last three days. The market started with a spurt, but later a flood of selling orders caused a dip. Renewed buying after the profits had been taken down brought the market to a strong close. Delay in exporting Argentine wheat, it is expected here, will cause a heavy demand for American grain for immediate delivery.

A campaign of profit-taking was also the order of the day in the corn market. This was induced by reports of the heaviest movement of the grain from the country that has yet taken place. Some conservative leaders declare the buying in this cereal has been overdone.

Heavy buying of cash oats for quick delivery kept the market in this grain steady during a period of realizing in futures today. There was a moderate break but a large demand from commission houses on the buying side kept prices from sagging.

With a very narrow range, the trade in provisions was more firm today as the result of smaller offerings by commission houses. Steadier prices in hogs at the yards helped this market.

CHESBRO TO COME BACK

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Happy Jack Chesbro, famous old New York American pitcher, will try to "come back" if the national commission will reinstate him, and baseball men declare that will be done when he pays a small fine. Chesbro is under suspension for refusing to play ball for the past few years. He has been engaged in the lumber business in Conway, Mass., but says he has kept in splendid condition, and that he can pitch as well now as he ever could. In 1904 he became the "iron man" by pitching fifty-two games, winning thirty-eight.

M'LEAN WINS EASILY

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 3.—Bobby McLean, the Chicago amateur skating champion of the world, is confident today that he will hold the world's title for another year following his easy victories in the western championships here last night. He won the quarter mile in 32 3-5 and the five mile in 16:05 4-5. A large field was entered for today's races of the western association. The international championships will be skated later.

SPORTING NEWS

PLATTEVILLE IS WINNER 42-27

Local Normal School Five Is Defeated for the First Time This Season

Making a determined rally in the last half but struggling against too great odds, the Normal basketball team went down to defeat last night at the hands of the Platteville aggregation to the tune of 42 to 27. The visitors who averaged fifteen pounds heavier to the man than the locals, played the ball over the heads of the La Crosse pedagogues continually and scored enough baskets in the first half to put them in the lead from which they were not to be shaken.

Previous to the game Cheerleader Jones and his bunch of trained yellers promenaded up and around the gym and worked up enthusiasm to a high pitch. Songs and the school yells joined in heartily by the fair co-eds almost raised the roof. A crowd of three hundred people was on hand long before the opening whistle sounded and although witnessing a losing game for the locals, kept up their cheering till the very last moment.

The game which was free from a great deal of roughness was fast and fierce but with Willis, Platteville's big center outjumping Hyde, the ball was almost continually in La Crosse territory. Hemming and Willis played the stellar game for the visitors while Dahl, Bonneville and Hyde did the scoring for the local teachers. Platteville's teamwork was excellent and this helped them greatly in gaining a victory.

A reception at which the captains of both teams, President Cotton, and Coach Moore spoke a few words was held afterwards and dancing was then indulged in, music being furnished by the Normal school orchestra. The lineup:

Field baskets: Hemming 7, Willis, 7, Gibson 3, Allen 1, Dahl 5, Hyde 2, Bonneville 2. Free throws, Hyde 5, Dahl 4, Hemming 3, Gibson 2, Allen 4. Referee Rand, La Crosse; umpire, Russell, Platteville. Times of halves, 20 minutes.

DISCUSS FORWARD PASS AT MEETING

Universities Will Settle the Football Problem; Some Amendments Are Suggested

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—With the abolition or preservation of the forward pass as an issue, the intercollegiate football rules committee will hold its annual meeting here today. Since the adoption of this ground gaining play, in the winter of 1906, it has been the bone of contention at every meeting since, and there are not a few of the committee who want to see the play obliterated entirely.

That there is going to be a bitter fight is assured. With A. A. Stagg of Chicago and Parke H. Davis of Princeton acting as champions of the "standpatters," and Harry L. Williams of Minnesota and Walter Camp of Yale leading the forces who are in favor of the abolition of the twenty-yard zone in forward pass, a long drawn out battle is expected.

Those opposed to the forward pass and the ten yard rule are of the opinion that the stronger elevens seldom win by scores which demonstrate the comparative strength of the teams. These persons also assert the distance betwen the 25 yard lines should be lessened, and when a team places the oval within the 25 yard lines, the distance to be gained in three downs should be shortened even more.

The national college association has instructed its representatives to vote for the amendments presented by Dr. Williams of Minnesota. Some of Williams' ideas are to lessen the distance between the two twenty-five yard lines from ten to seven yards and the distance to be gained inside of the twenty yard lines to the goal line to be shortened to five yards. Williams also is a strong advocate of allowing the ball to be thrown any distance into the enemy's territory, which will do away with the neutral zone, which does not permit of throws more than twenty yards. It is believed these alterations will increase the scoring possibilities of the attacking team.

Other minor changes are favored by some of the committee, such as a try at goal when the ball strikes the ground and then bounds over the cross bar, the play which gave Princeton a victory over Dartmouth. But the main fight will be over the forward pass.

A. A. Stagg of Chicago, H. L. Williams of Minnesota and J. M. Sheldon of Indiana, will represent the west. W. L. Dudley of Vanderbilt will represent the southern colleges, and Hugo Bezdek of Arkansas will be the representative of southwestern institutions.

NORMAL PLANS FOR BASEBALL TEAM

Coach Moore called together all aspirants for the normal school baseball team yesterday noon to look over material for the coming season. About thirty-five were on hand and it looks as though there will be no lack of good men. Captain Lawton and President Cotton spoke on the excellent prospects at the meeting and there will be at least three men contesting for each position a condition which was not encountered last year when there were hardly enough men to afford a single substitute. With a new athletic field and plenty of material the Normall will no doubt have one of the best teams in this part of the state. Manager Robinson is already scheduling games and many good contests are looked forward too.

HOPPE IN GOOD FORM

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Both Willie Hoppe, the youthful billiard champion, and George Sutton of Chicago, the challenger, who are to play for the world's championship at 18.2 balk line billiards here on February 7, are making big runs.

COULON FAVORITE OF CONLEY SCRAP

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 3.—With Johnny Coulon a 3 to 1 favorite and plenty of money in sight, crowds of fight fans from all parts of the Pacific coast states began arriving here early today for the twenty round battle this afternoon between the bantamweight champion and Frankie Conley, the Kenosha, Wis., favorite.

It was estimated by officials of the Vernon Athletic club that a record smashing crowd will see the battle.

Both fighters slept late this morning and put in the time before noon with light training stunts.

Both boys are confident of winning.

Coulon yesterday predicted a knockout, and Conley today asserted "somebody was going to get an awful beating, and it wont be Conley," but the consensus of opinion among fans is that the bout will last at least fifteen rounds. The boys will step into the ring at 3:15 this afternoon. The stipulated weight was 116, ringside. It is said Coulon will be five pounds under weight.

SAIER TO GET NEW AUTO

LANSING, Mich., Feb. 3.—Townspeople here today are discussing buying "Vic" Saier, Cub first baseman, a new automobile. One presented him a few days ago was demolished yesterday when the big league drove in front of a street car to prevent running down a little girl.

SENDS GARDNER A CONTRACT

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 3.—Before President Dreyfuss forwarded a contract to Pitcher Harry Gardner of Portland, Ore., he made the Pacific coast star promise to bring his family along to Pittsburgh when the season opens. This is to prevent attacks of nostalgia, from which Gardner suffered last season.

Bobby Byrne, sprightly third baseman, is another pirate who has signed. The roll book today reads: "Signed 25; released 4; unsigned 9."
